commit another federal, state or local crime."

On January 31, 2007, the defendant was arrested by the Montgomery Police Department and charged with Theft of Property 3rd degree.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On February 2, 2007, Dixon reported that she had been arrested on January 31, 2007. The arresting officer, Montgomery Police Officer C.B. Hogan, reports that Weldon Chafin, a security officer with Montgomery Security Department, was assigned to guard Lin Imports, Atlanta Highway, Montgomery, AL, when Dixon entered the store with three damaged chairs. Dixon requested a cash refund, however, David Lin, store owner, offered her a store credit. Dixon refused the offer and demanded a cash refund. Upon realizing that she would not receive a cash refund, Dixon took three new chairs outside the store, whereupon she proceeded to load the chairs into her vehicle. Dixon was subsequently arrested in the store parking lot.

It is recommended that no action be taken by the Court pending the outcome of the case. If the case is not proessed, the probation officer will seek no action from the Court; however, if there is a conviction, the probation officer will recommend some form of punitive sanction.

Respectfully submitted,
